STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Complainant has investigated the facts and circumstances of this offense and believes the following establishes probable cause:

Minneapolis Police received video surveillance footage of an attempted robbery occurring on August 3, 2019, near Target Field, in the city of Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minnesota.

The footage shows approximately 12 individuals viciously assaulting and attempting to take a cell phone from J.S., hereinafter Victim. The assailants rip Victim's shoes and pants off and go through Victim's pockets. Victim is punched and kicked in the head several times throughout the altercation. At one point, Victim is thrown to the ground —left motionless— then repeatedly jumped on, hit with planting pots, and rode over with a bicycle. Victim and all suspects are gone before police arrive. Police took still photos from the surveillance footage for purposes of identifying Victim and numerous suspects.

On September 6, 2019, Officers identified and located a robbery suspect matching the person depicted in surveillance footage in downtown Minneapolis, and identified him as JAMAR SHAMAR ROBINSON DOB 12/05/1998, hereinafter Defendant. In a post-Miranda interview, officers showed Defendant a photo obtained from the surveillance footage and Defendant confirmed that the person in the photo was him. Defendant provided an account for the incident, but denied hitting Victim. However, Defendant is seen on surveillance striking Victim twice and then is off camera going towards Victim along with several other suspects.

Defendant stated that he did not take anything from Victim and had his own items that were nearby, but is seen stuffing something in his pocket with his left hand. Defendant is on video standing over Victim as others strike Victim. Defendant leaves the area running and laughing while clutching an item. Defendant disappears off camera while others continue to assault Victim which included stripping, whipping, punching, kicking, jumping and throwing potted plants at Victim.

Complainant requests that Defendant, subject to bail or conditions of release, be:
