Minimum Sentence: 3 YEARS

STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Complainant has investigated the facts and circumstances of this offense and believes the following establishes probable cause:

On December 19, 2019, Minneapolis police responded to a shooting on the 1700 block of Russell Avenue North. En route, police heard dispatch air that a caller also called to report gun shots at the corner of Golden Valley Road and Russell Avenue. The caller stated that he/she had seen two males firing a gun at a truck, and the truck left southbound on Russell Avenue. The caller also stated that both males had run back into 2406 Golden Valley Road and into Apartment 104.

Police identified and contacted the 911 caller, hereinafter referred to as Witness 1. Officers verified with Witness 1 that no one had left Apartment 104 between when he/she observed the suspects enter and when police arrived.

Shortly after the shots fired call, at approximately 6:32 p.m., other officers who were responding to the shooting were directed to an SUV that had crashed into a tree in front of a residence on Russell Avenue North, a short distance from where Witness 1 observed the shooting. Further remarks indicated that there was one occupant, a subsequently identified male, ("victim,") in the vehicle with gunshot wounds to the back. Officers arrived and observed a white SUV that had struck a tree on the east side of Russell Avenue North.

The victim was laying across the center of the vehicle face down and blood rushing out of his mouth. The victim was removed from the vehicle, and officers began rendering aid. The victim had two gunshot wounds to his back. EMS personnel arrived and took over treatment of the victim. The victim would later be pronounced dead as a result of being shot in the back.

Back at 2406 Golden Valley Road, officers had "frozen" the premises, and obtained a search warrant for Apartment 104. Prior to executing the warrant, police cleared Apartment 104 of two adult females, and two children. One of the females was identified as DESTINY BRADSHAW, a/k/a DESTINY LUCRETIA BRADSHAW, DOB 12/16/1999.

Officers began to yell instructions for any other occupants of Apartment 104 to come out and show their hands. After about 30 seconds, a male later identified as TYREIK LAVEL PERKINS, DOB 3/20/1999, came out to the hallway and was detained.

After another short delay, a second male, identified as JAMES TYJUAN MOORE, DOB 5/01/1998, came to the door and was also detained.

During the execution of the search warrant, hidden in a couch, police located two handguns, a .22 and a 9mm, both semi-automatics. Inside a pair of blue jeans on the floor, police located a black wallet. The wallet contained a Wisconsin ID card in the name of TYREIK LAVEL PERKINS. Police located a gun magazine with live rounds on the floor of a bedroom closet, and a single live round on the closet floor approximately one foot away from the magazine.

Investigators subsequently interviewed Witness 1. Witness 1 told them he/she had observed the two male suspects walk out the front door at 2406 Golden Valley Road, then walk across Golden Valley Road towards Russell Avenue North. The suspects walked up to a white truck that was parked facing southbound on the east side of Russell Avenue.

Witness 1 described the first suspect as a dark-skinned black male, approximately 5'4" to 5'6" tall, wearing a pink hoodie and red pants. (MOORE fits this description, and when police detained him at the apartment, he was wearing red pants. A pink jacket was later located inside the apartment). Witness 1 watched this suspect try to open the driver's door of the truck. This suspect pulled a gun out of his pocket and fired the gun two times at the driver's side of the truck. Witness 1 described the second suspect as standing behind the shooter when this happened.

Witness 1 indicated the second suspect was a heavy set, light-skinned black male, wearing a black jacket with the hood up. She also indicated he was slightly taller than the shooter. This fits the description of PERKINS, the only other male who was present with MOORE.

After the shots, the white truck drove off fast, southbound on Russell Avenue North. The suspects ran back to the apartment.

Witness 1 stated that the suspects returned to 2406 Golden Valley Road and entered the building through the back door. Once inside, Witness 1 heard the suspects enter Apartment #104, because he/she heard the door slam, and heard the suspects talking about what happened.

In a post-Miranda recorded interview, PERKINS admitted being at the apartment with MOORE on December 19, 2019. PERKINS indicated that MOORE lived there with his girlfriend. PERKINS claimed he and MOORE had been there for approximately two hours before the police arrived and had not gone outside. PERKINS denied any knowledge of a shooting or any knowledge of the guns found in the apartment.

On December 22, 2019, investigators spoke with an identified female, Witness 2. Witness 2 stated that she received information about this homicide directly from DESTINY BRADSHAW, a/k/a DESTINY LUCRETIA BRADSHAW.

BRADSHAW told Witness 2 "everything," and Witness 2 was afraid to go home because BRADSHAW and her family knew where Witness 2 lived. Witness 2 acknowledged that she had spoken with PERKINS, and PERKINS told Witness 2 that he didn't know what was going on and he was afraid of MOORE.

Witness 2 indicated that BRADSHAW talked to MOORE about robbing people to make money. BRADSHAW was going to inbox people off of BRADSHAW's Facebook page and ask for marijuana. Their thinking was that since BRADSHAW was a female, it would be easier to lure males into the area. BRADSHAW provided Witness 2 with several of the names of the males BRADSHAW messaged, including victim's name.

BRADSHAW described to Witness 2 how, after the shooting, PERKINS and MOORE ran back to her apartment, where BRADSHAW assisted in hiding evidence.

Witness 2 notified investigators that PERKINS wished to speak with them a second time. Again, he waived Miranda warnings and told them the following:

He [PERKINS] and MOORE were waiting on BRADSHAW and that MOORE had a conversation on the phone with BRADSHAW. PERKINS said that after MOORE got off the phone, he asked PERKINS to walk with him. PERKINS said that they walked up to a car, and MOORE tried to open the door. When he couldn't open it, he started shooting at the car. PERKINS said that MOORE just looked at him and started laughing.

The two of them took off running from the vehicle, and when they got back into BRADSHAW's apartment, MOORE made PERKINS take all his clothes off. He said that he was the first one to come out when the police came. PERKINS said that he never had a gun, and that MOORE was shooting both the 9mm and the .22 at the vehicle.

PERKINS said that MOORE was wearing a pink sweater and a black jacket that night.

PERKINS said that he wasn't around BRADSHAW when she put on her Facebook status that she was looking for some "za" (marijuana). He said that this was something that she and MOORE had come up with to try to lure people into the area and then rob them. PERKINS admitted that he was aware of this robbery plan.

All of the above occurred in Hennepin County, Minnesota, and Defendant BRADSHAW is not currently in custody, therefore, a warrant is requested.
