STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Complainant has investigated the facts and circumstances of this offense and believes the following establishes probable cause:

On or about February 16, 2022, at approximately 9:18 p.m., Victim, a licensed Golden Valley police officer, responded to an attempted burglary report on the 3000 block of Lee Avenue North in Golden Valley, Hennepin County, Minnesota. The 911 caller reported a person dressed in all black had tried to gain access to her home and provided the person's direction of travel. When Victim arrived in his fully marked squad, he observed a suspicious vehicle sitting at the intersection just south of the home. Victim then observed a man matching the description of the burglar enter the front passenger seat of the vehicle. This man was later identified as Defendant MARLON TERRELL COLLINS (12/20/1991).

Victim attempted to stop the vehicle using his emergency lights. The vehicle did not stop and instead sped away, and Victim pursued. The chase peaked around 70 mph and spanned multiple city blocks. The vehicle crashed into a snowbank near the intersection of 37th Avenue North and Major Avenue North.

After the vehicle crashed, Defendant got out of the passenger seat, pulled out a handgun and began firing at Victim, who was also getting out of his vehicle. Defendant missed. Defendant continued running, then turned around, stopped, took a shooting a stance, and fired more shots at Victim, striking the spotlight on Victim's squad vehicle. Victim did not get hit. The Hennepin County Crime Lab later found five 9mm discharged cartridge casings at the scene.

Defendant continued to flee on foot, but officers located him about a half-block away, crouched down near a large bush in the backyard of a home.

Investigators found that Defendant had broken into multiple homes in the area. After the shooting, Defendant had kicked in the garage door to a home just north of the one where he was found. There, in the rafters, officers found a Glock 19 9mm pistol with a 30-round clip. The Glock was equipped with a laser sight and a "switch" converting it into an automatic weapon. The homeowner confirmed the gun did not belong to them.

Investigators determined that just before Defendant shot at Victim, Defendant had broken into a home on the 2900 block of Lee Avenue North, and stolen two small safes, one of which contained a firearm (different than the one used to shoot at Victim). Officers found these safes in Defendant's vehicle. Home surveillance captured Defendant breaking in while holding a gun and taking the safes. The residents were not home at that time. Upon searching Defendant's vehicle, officers found items connected to other home burglaries as well.

Defendant is prohibited from possessing firearms due to multiple felony convictions, including most recently second-degree burglary in 27-CR-15-23204.

Defendant is in custody.
