

Building material reuse organizations

The following organizations and businesses offer reuse and salvage opportunities for building materials. This list does not constitute approval of any of the firms and is not an endorsement of specific businesses or services. Nor do we claim the list is complete. Prospective users of these services should contact the firms for more information, including hours, materials accepted and sold, guidelines, and insurance information. Note: most salvage outlets require nails and screws be removed from wood prior to donation or sale.
