

2024-25 Opioid framework community partners

Updated 07-11-2025

Organization	Overview of contract services	Primary populations served	Website	Contract Amount
African American Survivor Services	Education, outreach, and referrals to treatment services	African American populations	aasurvivorservices.org	$100,000
Agate Housing and Services	Street outreach, distribution of naloxone and other safer use supplies, education, referrals, and care coordination	Unsheltered people who are experiencing opioid use disorder	agatemn.org	$175,000
Alliance Wellness Center	In patient treatment center and culturally specific clinic services with access to Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT)	Somali/East African adults with co-occurring mental health conditions	alliancewellnesscenter.com	$250,000
Anything Helps!	Education, outreach, and referrals to treatment services	African American populations	anythinghelpsmn.org	$100,000
Avivo	Harm reduction and recovery services, education, outreach, and referrals to treatment	Unsheltered people who are experiencing opioid use disorder	avivomn.org	$175,000
Beacon Behavioral Health, LLC.	SUD assessments as well as education, outreach, naloxone trainings, and partnerships with providers and community leaders	Refugee/immigrant youth with a focus on the East African community	beaconbhealth.net	$200,000
Broadway Family Medicine	Opioid response and treatment services, such as contingency management, care coordination, community engagement, test strips for fentanyl and xylazine, and Narcan distribution, for persons living with OUD and other co-occurring substance use disorders	African American, American Indian, and Hmong communities located in North Minneapolis	mphysicians.org/our-clinics/broadway-family-medicine-clinic	$310,000

Organization	Overview of contract services	Primary populations served	Website	Contract Amount
Change, Inc.	Opioid prevention and early intervention training to school-based mental health professionals, school support staff, and community youth workers	Licensed therapists, mental health practitioners, middle and high school staff members, and youth workers	thechangeinc.org	$54,000
Change Starts with Community	Education, outreach, naloxone trainings, and referrals for treatment	African American, BIPOC and American Indian communities in urban centers and low-income neighborhoods in Minneapolis	cswcmpls.com	$100,000
Change the Outcome	Opioid awareness and prevention education to students and schools	Middle and high school students, educators, and parents/caregivers	changetheoutcome.org	$150,000
Community Access for New Immigrants and Refugees (CANIAR)	Addiction prevention services through community events, youth activities and education	BIPOC, West African immigrant and refugee communities	caniarusa.org	$35,000
Community-University Health Care Center (CUHCC)	Enhance treatment program to improve treatment/recovery outcomes for program participants, increase access to Suboxone through community partnership and outreach	American Indian, African American, Hispanic/Latino communities in Minneapolis	cuhcc.umn.edu	$263,822
Comunidades Latinas Unidas En Servicio (CLUES)	MOUD and SUD services including peer support and care coordination	Hispanic/Latino, youth and immigrant communities in South Minneapolis	clues.org	$500,000
Dar Al Qalam Cultural Center	Opioid awareness and prevention education sessions	East African youth, parents/caregivers, and community leaders	facebook.com/daralqalamNE	$50,000
Daryeel Youth Services	Opioid awareness and prevention services through outreach events, community forums and trainings	East African youth and young adults in the Cedar Riverside neighborhood as well as East African community leaders, elders, and parents/caregivers	facebook.com/DaryeelYouthMN	$44,000
Access Healing Center LLC (through Greater Minneapolis Council of Churches)	Outpatient treatment, peer recovery support, and community awareness campaigns to foster a supportive environment for recovery	People with OUD and co-occurring mental health conditions, with a focus on Somali, East African, and Muslim populations	accesshealingcenter.com	$175,000
Hennepin Healthcare Research Institute	Provide an aggregated, deidentified dataset compiled by Hennepin Healthcare from the electronic health records for public health purposes	Research and Data to support all Hennepin County residents	hhrinstitute.org	$400,000

Organization	Overview of contract services	Primary populations served	Website	Contract Amount
Hennepin Healthcare System	Expand harm reduction services and access through syringe exchange, naloxone kits, testing, and referrals and care coordination	All Hennepin County residents accessing hospital services	hennepinhealthcare.org	$750,000
Hue-Man	Outreach, education, and training activities about substance abuse prevention, quarterly bilingual virtual web shows focused on addiction recovery resources	Hispanic/Latino, BIPOC, and African immigrant communities	huelmanpartnership.org	$50,000
ISD #271, Bloomington Public Schools	Opioid prevention training and early intervention services to address substance use within the Bloomington Public School District	Students and staff in Bloomington Public Schools	bloomington.k12.mn.us	$150,000
Indigenous Peoples Task Force	Drop-in syringe exchange, mobile distribution of naloxone and other safer-use supplies, outreach, referrals to treatment services, and trainings	Native American communities with a focus on individuals residing in South Minneapolis	indigenouspeoplestf.org	$700,000
Islamic Association of North America (IANA)	Opioid education and awareness initiatives	East African and Muslim communities	ianaonline.org	$25,000
Lao Assistance Center of Minnesota	Opioid prevention education and promoting access to resources for prevention, treatment, and support	Asian American and Pacific Islander (Lao, Karen, Vietnamese and Hmong) community members ranging from youth to adult	facebook.com/Laocenter.mn	$400,000
Little Earth Residents Association	Opioid response services for American Indian youth and young adults who are experiencing opioid use or addiction through the addition of a part-time Teen Recovery Coach	American Indian youth and young adults residing in the Little Earth of United Tribes Housing and Urban Development (HUD) subsidized housing complex	littleearth.org	$47,000
Metro Youth Diversion Center	Education, outreach, naloxone distribution and trainings, peer-to-peer mentoring, and community prevention programming	Somali and East African youth and adults	mydiversioncenter.org	$200,000

Organization	Overview of contract services	Primary populations served	Website	Contract Amount
MN Prevention and Recovery Alliance (MnPRA)	Opioid prevention services to pregnant teens and adults through Project CHILD, utilizing Certified Peer Recovery Specialists (CPRS) with lived experience in navigating substance use disorder (SUD) and pregnancy	Hennepin County residents aged 16+ who are pregnant and experiencing opioid use disorder with a focus on individuals facing housing instability or unsheltered homelessness, domestic or intimate partner violence, low socioeconomic status, and histories of foster care, trauma, or co-occurring mental health conditions	mnpra.org	$175,000
Minnesota Spokesman Recorder	Prevention services with a multi-media opioid addiction prevention campaign to BIPOC communities	Multicultural audience that includes African American, Hmong, Latinx, and American Indian communities	spokesman-recorder.com	$100,000
Native American Community Clinic (NACC)	Expand Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT) clinical services, developing OUD prevention workforce, and conduct opioid awareness and prevention education	American Indian youth and adults	nacc-healthcare.org	$405,000
Neighborhood HealthSource	Treatment and recovery services, support groups, drop-in services, outreach, education, and naloxone distribution	Houseless population including African American, Latinx, and African communities in North Minneapolis	neighborhoodhealthsource.org	$240,000
Pillsbury United Communities- Community Health	OUD prevention and referral services. The Community Health (CH) program leverages community partnerships, culturally responsive staff, and harm reduction practices to prevent OUD, connect people to treatment, and promote mental health well-being	East African, African American, Latino, and American Indian communities in Minneapolis	pillsburyunited.org	$75,000
LEAD - Let Everyone Advance with Dignity (through Pillsbury United Communities)	Opioid addiction response, including harm reduction services, case management, trauma-informed care, community events, and group activities	American Indian, African American, Latino, East African, and immigrant communities in the Minneapolis	leadmpls.org	$175,000
RS Eden	Inpatient and outpatient treatment services, case management, walk-in services, and care coordination	People with opioid use disorder or substance use disorder	rseden.org	$175,000
Somali Community Resettlement Services	Youth meetings/educational seminars, outreach, and livestreamed educational programming	East African youth (ages 14 – 30) and their families	somalcrs.org	$175,000

Organization	Overview of contract services	Primary populations served	Website	Contract Amount
Southside Harm Reduction Services	Distribution of naloxone and other safer use supplies, mobile delivery, pop-up syringe exchange and HIV testing events, education, street clean up, outreach, and referrals	People who use drugs in South Minneapolis, with a focus on the largely houseless, Native American population, and the broader community	southsideharmreduction.org	$290,000
Steve Rummeler HOPE Network	Increase overdose awareness, naloxone access, and safe use strategies, particularly for high-risk youth, BIPOC communities, and non-opioid users	Youth, BIPOC communities, and illicit polysubstance users	steverummelerhopenetwork.org	$120,000
The Aliveness Project	Mobile outreach and HIV testing, walk-in services, harm reduction services (including syringe exchange and naloxone distribution), referrals, and care coordination	People with an opioid use disorder or who use injection drugs, with a focus on unsheltered homeless populations, people who are HIV+, and LGBTQ+ communities of color	aliveness.org	$671,529
Turning Point, Inc.	Inpatient and outpatient treatment services, including housing, transition support, transportation, education and employment services	Inpatient/Outpatient services to African American men and women, in Minneapolis, Brooklyn Center, Brooklyn Park, and southern suburbs of Minneapolis	ourturningpoint.org	$370,000
Twin Cities Recovery Project, Inc.	Peer support recovery services, street outreach, naloxone distribution, education, mobile peer intervention, referrals, and care coordination	African American/BIPOC communities in North and South Minneapolis	twincitiesrecoveryproject.org	$310,280
Wayside Recovery Center	Residential treatment services with the ability to provide diagnostic assessments on a walk-in basis and services for addiction, parenting, and prenatal care	Women who have co-occurring substance use disorders and mental health diagnoses. Serving BIPOC and American Indian women	waysiderecovery.org	$175,000